The 3 "J's" Retire

JEAN

Prior to my leaving PBCC/Glades, I watched you work with the students of the Glades Campus...you were more than a librarian to them...you were an inspiration for them...you served as a guide for them.

You will be missed by the students of the Glades Campus.

May God go with you and protect you in your retirement.

(F. Harrell, Former Dean, PBCC/Glades)

For several years, it's been the two of us against those men at the Glades Campus. Thank goodness for such a good friend. Looking at your plans for the future makes me excited about retirement. I'm going to miss you!

(Janette)

I still remember the first day I walked into the library at the Glades Campus...you were so kind, gracious and helpful to me. Over the years, I had the great pleasure of watching you work with the students...

JOYCE

I remember when...Joyce was irritated when "Miss C" attached paper clips in long chains.

Joyce said, "I can repair any machine" 100% mechanically inclined.

Joyce lost 50+ lbs. on fat free muffins.

(Anonymous)

I'll always remember Joyce as that statuesque grandmother of 9. I've always appreciated your sweet personality and your willingness to help out. Hope you have a wonderful retirement and many enjoyable days in the pool.

(Jane)

The best of luck in your retirement. I know your nine grandchildren and your crafts will keep you busy. We'll be thinking about you when we need a neck or back rub.

(Kathy)

JUDY

I remember Judy saying "Sure glad you don't wear that mustard colored two piece dress anymore! You looked awful for 3 years."

"Glad you gained weight!"

Judy helping over the year (7) doing my research, I should graduate in another 7 years.

(Anonymous)

I've always appreciated the fact that Judy spoke her mind, so you always knew where you stood. I love her quick wit and wish I had that ability. I also enjoyed all the tidbits I picked up from her pertaining to gardening, Florida history, just about everything. Have a great retirement, Judy!

(Jane)

It's been fun working with you. I'll miss our Tuesday nights together. I know you'll be too busy enjoying your grandchildren, traveling, working in the yard, and antiquing you would greet them and welcome them into the library as if it were to your own living room at home. And when they would ask for your help...you would smile broadly, there was a twinkle in your eye and your voice flowed with enthusiasm and energy. It was wonderful to watch. You will be greatly missed at the Glades.

I am happy about your retirement, but sorry for me. Graduation will never be as much fun without you. Janette, Thalia, and I need you here for our round table discussions. You have been a great friend (from the beginning). Missing you can only be matched by our happiness for you as you begin this new chapter in life. But be ready, Jean for the conference calls!...

(Joanne)

Good luck in your retirement! Now you'll have the time to do all that traveling. It's been a privilege to know you.

(Kathy)

I'll remember Jean's smile and warm greeting whenever I saw her.

(Chris)

Good luck in all you do...I'm from the Glades too.

(Sharon / AV)

Mail us some snowball from "Michigan"...Good luck on your retirement.

(Billy / AV)

I'll remember "Miss Fixit"...with her bubbling, happy go lucky way...kicking me in the butt when I needed it and there when I needed to be picked up.

(Chris)

We'll miss your smiling face...Good luck with all the kids!!

(Sharon)

Wishing you the "Best of Luck" in your future.

Connie / Word Processing

We'll miss making signs for your displays and wish you the best in your retirement...by the way...Publix is hiring part-time...

Billy / AV

We'll miss your baking and your warm personality...Best wishes in your retirement.

(Bill / AV)

I wish you the best in your retirement and all that the future holds for you all.

(Jennifer / AV)

I'll miss the stimulating and sometimes intellectual conversations we had on Thursday nights...Most of which was very enlightening...Hope ya get to do everything ya set out to do. I'll miss your dazzling array of snappy outfits.

(Hank / AV)

Happy quilting.

(Bonnie / Word Processing)

to think much about this place. Enjoy your retirement and the best of luck always. A new chapter in your life is beginning.

(Kathy)

I'll miss Judy "picking" on me or visa versa...I'll miss her love and knowledge of antiques and glass...but I won't miss her constant reminders of their (her & Joyce's) retirement.

(Chris)

Thanks for all your helping in my "early" days...We will miss you.

(Sharon / AV)

Wishing you the "Best of Luck" in your future.

(Connie / Word Processing)

We'll miss making signs for your displays and computers and wish you the best in your retirement... by the way...Publix is hiring part-time.

Billy / AV

It's been a pleasure working with you and your wit...Good luck and enjoy your retirement.

Bill / AV

Mrs. Neumann...I'll really miss those gut busting wisecracks...now you can relax and plant flowers and watch over those mischievous younguns of yours...Have fun in whatever you do.

Hank / AV)

Happy gardening.

(Bonnie / Word Processing)

Don't call me when your TV breaks... Good luck and enjoy your retirement... Hope to see you in Michigan soon.

(Bill / AV)

It's been great working with you on the CCLA and FreeNet. Thanks for your gracious hospitality when we were on your campus.

(Estaline)

Happy smoke signals (Cold weather)

Bonnie / Word Processing)

Working with you has always been a pleasure. Your soft spoken voice and great smile I shall remember with joy.

(Anita / Circ.)

Good-bye to the lady with the cleanest and neatest library in Palm Beach County... Good luck... You deserve a break...

(Judy L / AV)

It's been a real treat to have known you... Hope your days get more enjoyable as they go.

(Hank / AV)

My first impression of Jean Anderson was when I met her at a meeting she attended here at Central Campus. It was a very basic hello and that was it. However, I learned more about Jean when I visited her library library out at the Glades campus. She would relate to me all that was going on in her library and I couldn't help but notice what strength she had to have to run all the jobs in her library practically by herself

(Doug)

Goodbye to all the great displays on the second floor... Happy retirement and don't think of us slaving away.

(Judy L / AV)

Grandkids!! Crafts!! I've enjoyed talking with you about them. I hope someone will keep you supplied with cinnamon candy during your retirement.

(Estaline)

Your smile and bouncing walk shall be missed around here... Are you leaving your "Tool Box" to me?

(Anita / Circ)

I'll always remember her welcome smile at the desk and while on lunch break. Of course, how can I forget hearing her voice on the phone exclaiming, "the LAN is down!"

(Doug)

I'll miss your company at lunch watching the soaps, your backrubs, your apple snacks and the updates on your grandchildren.

(Carolyn [Peaches] / AV)

Have a happy retirement. Travel, have fun, make lots of quilts. (You weren't as bad as Judy about counting your days left!) We will miss you and your apple coolies and green pickles. How come they never come out the same when I try your recipe!

(Marie)

Grandkids, sewing, etc. - I don't know how you had time to work.

Wishing you a happy and healthy retirement... Have fun in Maryland. I shall remember your wit and gardening knowledge.

(Anita / Circ)

I've enjoyed hearing your travel experiences and "life in the Air Force". Thanks for sharing your flowers with us.

(Estaline)

I wish you the best in your retirement and all that the future holds for you all.

(Jennifer)

She always had some interesting tales to spin about her days in Germany or on vacation or whatever her family had been doing over the years.

(Doug)

Good-bye to all the great displays on the second floor... Happy retirement and don't think of us slaving away.

Judy / AV

I'll miss talking to you about your grandchildren, comparing our children, your retirement countdown and I'll especially miss the dates of the sales.

(Carolyn [Peaches] / AV)

Have a happy retirement. Travel, have fun, plant lots of plants. At least we won't have to listen to you

I hope you really enjoy your retirement in Michigan, those winters are so long so I take it that you love winter sports. Well I hope you enjoy all that blowing snow, ice storms and freezing temperatures.

(Jane)

I'll miss your pleasantness. You've always been kind and patient and I'm sorry they had to put you out in "the sticks".

(Carolyn [Peaches] / AV)

Have a happy retirement! I still think your going to freeze you're buns off in Michigan! They have had snow in May and June and I am sure you will miss the sunny skies of Florida. Good luck and enjoy your retirement.

(Marie)

Enjoy your retirement!...Need any boxes?

(Lisa)

Though we have not worked together I have always enjoyed your smiling personality when you visited or called. Best wishes to you...Have a wonderful retirement.

(Diana)

When I think of Jean...I think of missionaries. I marvel at her ability to withstand and cope with the "mission fields" of Belle Glade. Jean can overcome any obstacle with her quiet and calm assurance. She is one of the finest people I ever met...She has an integrity that is hard to find. I wish her the best in her retirement and I will be out to visit her often. She will be missed by all.

(Rosemarie)

Just think of all the new projects you can take on now. All the best!

(Lisa)

Sorry Joycee but you can't go. It's those magic fingers we have come to know. you poked our backs & kneaded our necks so if you go we'll all be wrecks. Best wishes in your retirement.

(Diana)

When I think of Joyce...I think of Martha Stewart...Joyce is such a talented person is so many ways...I marvel at her wonderful abilities...Needless to say...I am also jealous, envious and angered at all her marvelous attributes...Her children are just like her...Tell me is there justice in this world? All joking aside...I shall truly miss Joyce with all her support and massages she has given me...I wish her the best in her retirement. She shall surely be missed by all.

(Rosemarie)

When I think of Joyce...I think of her superior service attitude... People with her sense of service seem to be born to it...She's a "Natural". She too will be greatly missed.

(Brian)

counting down your days left to work!! (We're envious!) We'll miss you---and your Swedish (?) meatballs!

(Marie)

First there was Ace Ventura, Pet Detective. How about a new freelance career as The Lost Book Detective? I hope the best finder of lost books finds all that she desires!

(Lisa)

You've been a worldly encyclopedia with all the knowledge that you that you know, so ready reference is where we will have to turn too, after you go. Happy hunting in your retirement.

(Diana)

When I think of Judy...I think of a "Trivia Queen"...Judy has so much knowledge stored in her head that I marvel at her brain size. Besides, she is a wonderful and supportive person and was always there when I needed help & advice. I wish her the best in her retirement...She too will be missed by all.

(Rosemarie)

Judy has always been an extra valuable employee. She has done her job extremely well in the daily logistics of the Periodical Department. She is also an avid periodical reader which gives her the ability to help students in finding information about a topic before we receive the index listing articles by subject. Her sense of humor has always been appreciated. She will be greatly missed.

(Brian)

As a peer and colleague I have always valued Jean's perception on things. Her advice, expertise and professional attitude were always an asset to PBCC-LLRC for many years. Whoever replaces Jean will have a tough act to follow.

(Brian)

To the three "J's"

As you look back upon the years that led to this event may the memories be of time well spent...

(Shirley / Word Processing)

To the Lucky Ladies...Travel on!!!

(Susan / Word Processing)

Happy Retirement!
